EASTERN DATES TO JULY 8

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

Manifesto from the Bourbon Claimant of the French Throne

PARIS, July 7.—Count de Chambord has issued a proclamation announcing that he is about to leave France in order that his presence in the country may no longer give countenance to agitation. He adds: "Though absent we shall not be separated from our countrymen when French men are willing we shall found a government with a decent realization of liberty and universal suffrage as our mottoes." He praises the army and declares his unfaltering adhesion to the white flag of Henri IV and Joan of Arc, which conquered Alsace and Lorraine.

More about the Bourbon

LONDON, July 8.—Count de Chambord is now at Chateau Chambord. He refused to see the Orleans Princes until he consulted the people of France. His proclamation calling upon the people to rally around the Bourbon throne creates great excitement and unless the authorities interfere there will be an imitation of Napoleon's Strasbourg programme.

Other French Affairs

LONDON, July 8.—The French National Assembly is engaged in the preparation of a history of the war with Germany and the civil war.

Paris will issue a loan of six hundred million francs, to be expended in the repairing and rebuilding of monuments and public works damaged or destroyed during the siege.

The Times publishes a letter vindicating the conduct of United States Minister Washburne during the siege of Paris, and stating in most emphatic terms that Washburne was never in favor of the Communists.

General European News.

MADRID, July 8.—It was announced that Serrano was to resign the Presidency of the Council of Ministers in case of the failure of the budget in the Cortes.

ROME, July 7.—The French charge d'affaires at the Italian Court has taken up his residence in Rome. The Austrian Minister is expected at an early day.

HAGUE, July 8.—The second chamber of the Parliament has ratified the treaty for the cession of the island of New Jamaica in the Pacific Ocean to England.

EASTERN STATES

Further about the Horse Plague—Great Mortality among Horses

CHICAGO, July 8.—A New York special says the gravest apprehensions are felt about the horse disease, which seems most alarmingly on the increase. It is now believed to be not only epidemic, but contagious. A number of blood horses are said to have been seized with the disease, those of Bonner, Vanderbilt, Wilkes, Belmont, Fisk and Stewart among the rest. It is reported that during the week thirty or forty horses, valued at from $5 000 to $10 000 each, have died of the plague, and all horse owners are greatly alarmed for the safety of their property. At present at least two thousand animals are suffering from the contagion, which baffles all the skill of veterinary surgeons. There is little doubt that the epidemic will spread all over the country, and no limits can be set to its diffusion. The disease has increased in violence to more than an ordinary degree in the last two weeks.

Railroad Accident in New Jersey.

NEWARK, July 8.—A shocking accident occurred on the Newark and New York railroad this morning, near the Ferry street station in this place, resulting in the death of several persons and wounding of many more. The 5 o'clock train from this city and another from New York were running on the same track, and came in collision. The cars are a heap of burning ruins. Already seven bodies have been taken out, and it is supposed that there are many more.

Dispatches from New York

NEW YORK, July 8.—A special Washington dispatch states that Senator Schurz has written a letter in which he strongly expressed himself in favor of Charles Francis Adams of Massachusetts for Vice President in 1872.

The National Banks continue to hold their 5 20's and other 6 per cent bonds, and it has been discovered at the Treasury Department that some of these banks have advised their depositors, who were holders of 6 per cent bonds, to keep them. Though these National Banks are a creation of the Government, it is from them that the most serious impediments to success of the new loan have been met with.

Official advices from Russia declare that the Grand Duke Alexis Alexandrovich will visit this country next fall, and will probably arrive here next September.

Cholera Infantum in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Cholera infantum is prevailing to a great extent in Brooklyn.

The Horse Plague in New York

NEW YORK, July 7.—The horse plague is increasing and interfering seriously with street car travel on East Broadway, Third and Eighth Avenues.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Civil Service Commission

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The Civil Service Commission to day continued consideration of subjects introduced at the previous sessions, especially that upon competitive examinations, in regard to which the Commissioners are making extended inquiries as to how well the system works where it has been adopted.

Internal Revenue Matters

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Letters received at the Internal Revenue Office, from Supervisors Foulke and King, report great difficulty experienced in collecting revenue in the Districts of Arizona and Dakota, by reason of hostility of the Indians of those Territories having rendered travel insecure. In Dakota the steamer Far West, plying on the Missouri river, was attacked by Indians and riddled with bullets.

A Washington special says that it is now known here, upon semi official authority, that Commissioner Pleasonton has resigned on account of a misunderstanding between himself and Boutwell. As soon as the withdrawal was handed in it was accepted by the President, and C. A. Arthur, of New York was tendered the position. He expressed his inability to serve, however, and it is necessary to make another selection. No one has yet been chosen, but it is thought Deputy Commissioner Douglass will be appointed.

Ku Klux Investigations.

WASHINGTON, July —The Ku Klux Investigating Committee to day examined Jas. H. Speed of Alabama, ex Confederate officer, and now Regent of the State University and Superintendent of education in Perry county. He testified that the section of Alabama in which he resided was quiet and peaceable until last winter, when bands of armed and disguised men began to commit outrages of various kinds. This state of affairs continued for a while, but recently, so far as witness knows, things have been quiet throughout the State. The result of the occurrences above referred to had been to excite general terror among the colored people, and make them afraid to vote. In regard to the education of negroes he said the only opposition to it came from the lower classes of whites, former owners of slaves being strongly in favor of general and impartial education.

The Cattle Disease.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—To prevent introduction into the United States of the cattle disease, known as hoof and mouth disease, now prevailing in Chile and the Argentine Republic, orders have been issued that no cattle will be allowed to enter United States ports from those countries unless accompanied by an invoice having Consular certificates that the station is free from disease.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Joseph W. Schmitz and Godfrey Smith, having published a card denouncing John Allen and cautioning other musicians not to enter his employment, were both arrested to day on a charge of conspiracy.

Nothing yet from the steamer Wonga Wonga, of Hall's line, now a week over due from Australia, and the impression is gaining ground that the line has collapsed, and that she will not come at all.

Nicholas Violich, who shot Isaac Brooks in the mouth, on Dupont street, on the morning of the 4th, was admitted to bail to day on the charge of assault to murder. Brooks is still in a very critical condition.

Another Cocos Island pirate treasure seeking expedition will start from here soon. This will be about the twentieth expedition fitted out here for that purpose.

The nomination of John Rosenfield by the Democrats for State Harbor Commissioner, took the public by surprise. It is generally considered a strong card.

Jas. B. Newby sued the Alta to day for $50 000 damages for an alleged libel in speaking of an alleged unprofessional transaction.

MILTON, July 8.—Last evening about 8 o'clock a man named Murphy stabbed and instantly killed Thos. Rodgers, at Tregfell's ranch, about 14 miles from this place. The quarrel originated about a small piece of tobacco. Murphy, after committing the murder, made his escape. A large party are in pursuit. He will probably be captured to-day.

Dispatch from Stockton

STOCKTON, July 8.—Geo. Harris aged 50 years attempted to commit suicide on a ranch near Cosumnes river last Thursday evening by taking a dose of laudanum.

During the month of June there were 23 births and 31 deaths in this city.

The San Joaquin Valley railroad bridge, across Tuolumne river, is almost completed. Trains will be able to cross in a few days.

NEVADA.

Shooting Affray—One Man Killed.

HAMILTON, Nev., July 8.—Yesterday morning three men left Pioche on the Salt Lake stage. As they were leaving some obligations behind unpaid, Constable George Davis got into the stage intending to bring them to an account at Bullionville. A short time before reaching the latter place they suspected his errand and commenced abusing him, and one of them drawing a knife inflicted a severe wound across Davis' knee. When the stage arrived at Bullionville they put their pistols to the driver's head, compelling him to change horses as quickly as possible and made him drive for his life. Sheriff Kane being on the way to Bullionville, and hearing of the occurrence, procured men and horses at that place and started in pursuit, overtaking the stage. He commanded them to halt, but they forced the driver to whip up his horses and commenced shooting at the Sheriff's party, who returned the fire killing one man known as Big Sam and capturing the others.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

General News.

News from the Omineca gold fields are more encouraging. The diggings are shallow and wide spread.

The appointment of Hon. J. W. Trutch as Governor of British Columbia is well received.

Two skating rinks have been started and are doing a thriving business.

Weather very pleasant.

The steamer Geo. S. Wright was disabled at San Juan. Her propeller is reported loose, and she was beached for repairs.

The yield of strawberries has been enormous this season.

CURRENT NOTES

On the Fourth in San Francisco the Chinese outdid everybody else in fireworks.

Florence Nightingale describes herself as so "overwhelmed with business" that for nineteen years she has "had but twice one week's holiday," and as being a prisoner in her room for many years from illness.

The colony of Swedes in Aroostook county, Maine, is declared to be a great success. There are now 630 Swedes there, who were brought over through the exertions of the State Immigration agent, and 1,000 more are expected immediately.

A Washington paper relates circumstantially that Dr. C. C. Cox, President of the Board of Health of that city, is to be offered or has been offered the editorship, at a salary of $8 000 a year, of a "new independent daily paper," to be started in New York, the funds for which are already partly provided.

At last the heathen Chinee has come to the Patent Office to protect cheap labor, or his profits in business, by a trade mark for tea. The first application to the Patent Office from Chinamen came in a few days since from a firm in San Francisco seeking a patent for a trade mark for new tea which they call pouchong.

Three years since Mr. and Mrs. Z. M. Smith set out for a long journey from Boston in their own carriage. They returned a few days ago, having accomplished 12,000 miles with their horses and 30 000 miles by steam saddle and canoe in the Far West and Mexico, at an expense to themselves of $25 000. They visited every place of the smallest importance in whatever region they traveled.

Efforts now making to raise the monitor Weehawken, sunk in Charleston harbor during the war, reveal the facts that she lies due east and west on a bottom of mud, and there is about eight feet of water over her at low tide. In this position she is a dangerous obstruction in the channel. All her machinery has been taken up, and likewise the iron of her turret and deck. Her interior is all filled with mud and garbage, among which human bones are here and there visible. The diver is able to see about him when the water is clear. When the water is not clear he is compelled to go entirely by feeling, and in muddy water he sees better by night than by day. This is owing to the presence of innumerable phosphorescent sparks (said by scientists to be composed of animalculæ). Over two hundred tons of iron and various metals have been raised from this ship.

OREGON MAIL ROUTES.—The editor of the Eugene Journal writes the following, under date of June 21st:

I visited the Postoffice Department to day to ascertain what decision has been made in regard to the bids of last winter for carrying the mails in Oregon for four years from the 1st of July. Only a few unimportant routs previously mentioned in these letters, have been let, while all others which were advertised last winter are suspended, and marked on the books "not needed." Among those thus suspended are the following: From Umatilla to Seattle, Dalles to Ochoco, Dalles to Upper Ochoco, Astoria to Forest Grove, Hot Springs to Jacksonville, Portland to Netarts Bay, Salem to Sheridan (covered by another route), Jacksonville to Baker City, Eugene City to Winnemucca. On most of these routes there are from ten to forty bidders, and there is an astonishing difference in the price asked for the same service. The highest bids will average about forty times as many dollars as the lowest for the same service (while the difference is even greater in some instances) with intermediate bids ranging all the way from the lowest to the highest.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON CITY

Pardon of Bowen

WASHINGTON, July 8.—To day the Marshal of this District received the pardon of Bowen, dated July 1st. It reads as follows:

U. S. Grant, President of the United States, to all whom it may concern and these presents shall come greeting: Whereas on the 17th of June 1871 in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, holding criminal term, one C. C. Bowen was convicted of bigamy and sentenced to be imprisoned for two years and pay $500 fine, and, whereas, it is represented that he was innocent of any intention of violation of law, and that he acted in good faith, believing his former wife to be dead, and it appears that he rendered good services in the cause of the Union during rebellion and since the termination has endeavored to lead an honest and upright life, and for these reasons eleven of the jurors who found a verdict against him and many other citizens of the highest consideration and weight urge his pardon, and U. S. Attorney Fisher would be gratified by the exercise of the Executive clemency, now, therefore be it known, that I, U. S. Grant, President of the United States of America, in consideration of these premises and divers other good and sufficient reasons thereunto moving, do hereby grant to C. C. Bowen a full, unconditional pardon.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT.
By the President:
J. BANCROFT DAVIS, Acting Secretary of State.

The Marshal at once wrote out a release and Bowen walked out of jail with Mrs. Pettigrew King Bowen.

Money Orders to Europe

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A letter received here from Mr. McDonald, Superintendent of the postal money order system of the United States who is now in London for the purpose of arranging a money order system between this country and Great Britain, states that he is meeting with success and will probably conclude his business satisfactorily in a few days, when he will leave for Berlin to make similar arrangements with the German authorities.

EASTERN STATES.

Frightful Railroad Accident

NEW YORK, July 8.—About eight o'clock this morning the 8:15 train from New York and the 8 05 train from Newark sighted each other when dashing along at full speed. Whistles were blown without any diminution in impetus. As they approached the switch at Porilles' farm which the railroad runs through a gravel train had just been switched off there and the switch had not been replaced. The trains met each other at the junction. The New York train ran off and jumping from the track bounded down the embankment into the ditch dragging with it the three front cars and smashing them. The down train threw off the tender and engine. The first passenger car was telescoped into for fully fifteen feet. In a few minutes subsequent to the terrible calamity and fall it became apparent that the cars and engine were on fire. The flames spread and soon enveloped everything within reach. The greatest alarm prevailed among the passengers. Ladies screamed, men became frightened, some rushed to the doors, while others threw baskets, bundles and in some instances small children from the windows. The terror was thus augmented by a report that scores of human beings were in the burning carriages unable to effect their escape. A fire alarm was wrung and firemen reached the scene and promptly extinguished the flames. The scene of the disaster is a sorrowful sight. For 100 feet the tracks are lined with debris of destroyed engines and cars. One hundred men are working clearing away the rubbish. Hundreds of people are congregating at the scene. One man jumped out of a window at the moment of the accident and thus saved himself. All the killed were employes of the road. The general impression is that the accident is the result of criminal negligence on the part of the employes of the road. All travel is now suspended on this road.

Following is a list of killed: George Hill, engineer, roasted alive under the engine; Frank ..., engineer, terribly mangled, and died in ten minutes; Daniel White, brakeman; R. W. McManus, fireman; Geo. Banks, an engineer is missing, and is supposed to be buried under the demolished cars. The number of passengers injured cannot be less than 30. George Banks of New Haven, and Frank Adams, of New York are supposed to be fatally injured.

NEW YORK, July 8.—There is every prospect of a riot on Wednesday next. It seems that the Orangemen will parade, and the Irish will openly resort to violence to prevent them from doing so. It is currently reported that members of the Irish societies to the number of 12,000 are arming and will appear on the 12th for the purpose of carrying their threats into execution, while it is generally understood by the police that 5 000 Orangemen will march on that day ready to defend themselves from attack.

BOSTON, July 8.—About midnight last night a police officer, D. Wilbores was shot dead on his beat in Chelsea street, by a man who came up and said, "How are you?" and instantly fired. The assassin escaped. Corner, a saloon keeper was arrested as the murderer.

James Armstrong, charged with the murder of his wife in September, 1868 in North Bridgewater, makes confession of his crime. He says it was instigated by a quarrel.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—The steamer Wonga Wonga, thirty five days and six hours from Sydney, via Fejee Islands and Honolulu, arrived at midnight, bringing the heaviest European American mail ever dispatched from the Australian colonies. Political and general news is not specially important.

An expedition is fitting out at Sydney for the exploration of New Guinea.

Breadstuffs were lower in the Australian colonies, and shipments of Oregon salmon, &c., from San Francisco, resulted in a heavy loss.

About 3 o'clock this afternoon a gang of boys, playing on the block bounded by Sacramento, Jones, Clay and Leavenworth streets, knocked the supports out from under an unoccupied frame dwelling house and it came down with a crash, smashing into pieces, burying a number of the boys in the ruins. Charles M. Beach, aged 14 was instantly killed; Martin Reddington, aged 11, was badly hurt; Jas. Flanders was severely injured. The house, which was of small value, belonged to Judge Burbank. The boys killed were playing cards in a chamber.

A very large attendance is expected at the solemn services for the rest of the souls of Archbishop de Athens and his companions, which will be performed to morrow morning at Notre Dame des Victoires, by Archbishop Alemany and the clergy of his diocese.

The steamer Oriflamme, from Portland, has arrived.

The weather is very fine.

The report that Chief Crowley is a candidate for Sheriff is emphatically denied.

The Odd Fellows' General Relief Committee of San Francisco report that in the last six months they received $52,665 and disbursed $26 332.

The steamer Wonga Wonga will probably sail for Melbourne about the 20th inst.

Jacobs' retail dry goods store at 410 Kearny street was damaged a few hundred dollars by fire this morning; fully insured.

Lieut. Porter Carr, who fell from the steeple of the new Catholic church, died last night.

NAPA, July 9.—The body of W. W. Whitcomb, an old resident of this place, was found at his residence entirely decomposed, and supposed to have been dead for the past two weeks. The cause of his death is unknown but it is thought from the blood found in different parts of the house, that he had cut an artery of his arm while under the influence of liquor. He leaves a wife, whose present residence is unknown, she having left him about a month ago.

A Contested Election Case at Corvallis

There is a contest at Corvallis for the office of City Recorder. We understand from reliable authority that the facts in the case are these:

W. I. Robinson and William Groves were candidates for City Recorder—Robinson a Democrat, Groves a Republican. There was some manipulation of the record so that it did not speak as the judges of election understood the facts. Two votes were rejected by the judges, but at the request of Robinson their names were written down, and instead of it being stated opposite their names "rejected," it was written "received under protest." Counting these two votes gave Robinson majority of two. Groves not being satisfied with the result, and believing that a large number of illegal votes had been cast for Robinson gave notice of a contest, giving the names of the illegal votes. Davis, now in the insane asylum, was one who voted for Robinson after he was judged by the County Court as insane and others equally as objectionable also voted for him. The City Council proceeded to take [illegible] and after a full hearing of the [illegible] decided that Groves was duly elected. He then came forward and filed his bond [illegible] sworn in and took possession of the office. [illegible] happened that one half of the City C[illegible] Republican and the other half [illegible] The Republican portion found that Groves was elected by seven [illegible] the Democratic portion found [illegible] elected by a majority of [illegible] declaring him [illegible] You will [illegible] from all [illegible] Groves, [illegible] office wante[illegible] son told him [illegible] up—that [illegible] few days [illegible] in the Circ[illegible] view [illegible] on the [illegible] son had [illegible] the case [illegible] hold the office [illegible] looked [illegible] from [illegible] popular [illegible] hand of [illegible] idea of [illegible] election [illegible] trivance [illegible] nothing [illegible] gave him [illegible] election [illegible] reach [illegible] out and he [illegible] been so suc[illegible] people, [illegible] ment to [illegible] gency [illegible] the office of [illegible] tality of the C[illegible] be supposed [illegible] himself to such [illegible] thorities learned [illegible] was talked of and [illegible] authorized the J[illegible] at any time [illegible] not a doubt should [illegible] but he would hear and [illegible] nearest possible time, [illegible] from embarrassment [illegible] doubts and uncertainties [illegible] But what was the [illegible] of every one [illegible] the writ returnable on [illegible] of November, putting [illegible] term of the office [illegible] Supreme Court. History shows that [illegible] our Judges are pure minded honorable men. But occasionally the people have been deceived in their choice. Here is a case presenting all the abuse of the discretion and process of the Court and a refusal of that justice which if timely administered would accomplish the good purposes of the law.

Southern War Claims

Vast numbers of claims for property destroyed during the war are being brought forward at Washington by so-called "Southern loyalists A Commission has been appointed to examine and report on these claims, and it has already made awards amounting to $150 000 These, however, are but the beginning The San Francisco Bulletin says that the ring that is watching to buy up and speculate in the claims, and the politicians, through whose united efforts the bill under which the Commission is organized was passed, are evidently manipulating the matter adroitly To allay public apprehensions, the claims thus far presented have been comparatively small—averaging about $2,000 each—and those have been selected which bear the most appearance of hardship on the part of the claimants The success that has attended their efforts is evinced by the fact that only about one-eighth of the claims presented up to this time have been absolutely rejected and those on the ground of the disloyalty of the claimants But the claims passed are simply the entering wedge, to make way for millions more, to be passed year after year, for probably the next half century, and each year with the prospect of success bettered, in exact ratio to the increase of Southern political influence This business is full of real danger to the country Congress should at once legislate on the subject and limit the powers of the Commission or, what would be better abolish it at once In nine cases out of ten the 'loyalty' of the claimant is a sham It is well known that ninety nine in a hundred of the Southern whites participated in one way or another in the rebellion It will be necessary to check this Commission, if we do not want to pay so great a sum as the rebel war debt, and bankrupt the country Of course if the Democratic party were in power a door would be open through such a Commission to the most extravagant raids upon the Treasury.

Another Volume of Oregon Poetry

A book of poems by Mrs Belle W Cooke of Salem, is lying before us We have turned over some of its leaves and find in them not a few felicitous thoughts and expressions The rhyming generally is easy and happily free from a kind of strained effort to produce an effect which is often witnessed, especially in those who make their first attempt at poetry In this volume the variety of poems is considerable The writer seems to have collected within the compass of the book the product of several years musings on Parnassus We do not give the book unlimited praise, some of the thoughts are trifling, the versification in some places is wanting in melody, and [illegible] here and there in some of the pieces [illegible] the rule of Horace, who advises poets to keep their productions nine years before publishing them and then judge whether they should be published or not, to have been [illegible] Mrs. Cooke seems to have had some of these pieces on hand longer than that, and in our judgment might have omitted them with advantage to herself and her book Nevertheless there are creditable pieces in the volume and some of them may obtain a place in a future collection of the poetry of Oregon On the whole Mrs Cooke will have, we think, no reason to regret having published and she may yet do better things than any she has accomplished in this book, which we believe is her first publication

The [illegible] tells us that the people of the Southern States—by which it means the late rebels have exhibited a forbearing and forgiving spirit which is remarkable" Which observation indicates that in the Herald's opinion "the Southern people" have done no wrong but they have been deeply injured and outraged by the "Radicals,' who whipped them back into the Union and now compel them to live under it. We read in Pickwick of a drunken fellow who raised a row and thrust a bayonet through a man's hand, making an ugly wound Next morning when he was somewhat more sober he called round and told the man that he cherished no malice and was willing to overlook and forgive all that had happened!

The mass of papers seized at Richmond on the capture of that city, and called the "Confederate Archives,' have at last begun to have practical value The slippery ex rebels who come up to Washington with their "claims,' protesting their "loyalty" and ready to do an amount of perjury, if by this means they can swindle the Government, are brought to grief by means of these archives One who has been "swearing" voluminously around Washington in the hope of getting ten thousand dollars, has just been ascertained to have been a red-hot rebel, by means of documents discovered

An Indiana paper announces that it seems to be an established fact that Salmon P Chase is the real author of the 'New Departure.' Vallandigham, before he set the Dayton ball in motion, visited the East, and after a preliminary interview with the Tammany magnates, enjoyed a long communion with the Chief Justice The result is before the nation, and the knowing ones complain that it means Chase for the Democratic nomination of 1872

Much is said about the superiority of the British mercantile marine over that of the United States, but the difference is much smaller than many suppose Where England has 2 972 steamers, with a tonnage of 948 367, the United States have 3 619 mercantile steamers, with 973 850 tonnage As for sailing vessels there are 24,187 English and 24 499 American, but the tonnage of the former is greater

The Dallas Republican under the management of Mr B H Tyson has become a really useful and valuable paper. It is soundly Republican in its utterances though not partisan or violent, it eschews clap-traps, runs on principles of moderation and common sense, believes in and advocates protection of American industry, and altogether is a useful journal for the community in which it is published

Ex Senator Williams has been appointed member of the Executive Committee of the National Union League for this State At a meeting of the Committee in Washington on the 22d June a report was read detailing the operations of the League throughout the United States The League will be organized so as to participate with the greatest possible effect in the Presidential election next year

The Germans who have recently settled on lands in Pierce county, W T, are well pleased with the country, the climate, and their prospects generally Nearly all of them have written to their friends in the East advising them to come to Puget Sound and settle

An Olympia paper has this Watkinds Superintendent of the Oregon Penitentiary, who assaulted S A Clarke a short time ago at Salem, with a cowhide and revolver using both was indicted plead guilty and was fined $200 Clarke received four bullets at fifty dollars each Cheap A ruffian commands a high place in Oregon

The Farmer learns that some of the Klamath Indians who, by permission of the agent were fishing on Lost River, have been attacked by the Modocs, who lay claim to that country One of the Klamaths was killed and the commander at the fort has sent troops to arrest the murderers Capt. Jack the leader of these murderers, is an unruly Indian and has given trouble before

From the Albany Democrat: Mr Goodchild, of Eugene, has left a bunch of yarn in our office for the inspection of the public, which was spun by his machinery, and which is as fine a quality of that sort of material as we have ever seen The public will recollect that he will take the raw wool just as it comes from the sheep's back, and work it into the most superior yarn for 25 cents per pound The specimen can be seen by calling at our office

From the Eugene Guard Mr. Hallett informs us that a temporary bridge is being built at Harrisburg, and as soon as it can be fixed strong enough to bear the weight of the locomotive the work of laying track on the west side of the river will be commenced He thinks that the rails can be laid in seven days to this place from the date of beginning, and feels confident that he will have a locomotive at the foot of Willamette street before the 10th day of August. Contracts for clearing off the timber on the line between here and Oakland have been let to Messrs Noah Woods and William Iles

From the Statesman The drawings and plans of the new Methodist Church at Salem have been received from the hands of the architect, Mr Charles Adams of Chicago, and cost $600 From them we learn if they are accepted, that the new edifice will be 78 feet by 120, the spire 208 feet in height from the ground, the front door 14 feet wide and 25 feet high, with a circular window above it 16 feet in diameter The estimated cost based upon these plans is $50,000, which being somewhat higher than anticipated a meeting of the Committee is to be held to-morrow (Monday) to determine whether they will be received or not

The Republicans of Montana have nominated W. H Claggett, of Deer Lodge, for Congress It is believed that he has a good chance of being elected.

Indians in Payette valley are making themselves troublesome by stealing stock, throwing down fences, demanding meals at houses and other like demonstrations. They are very insolent, and in some cases manifest hostile intentions Settlers say that if the Indians do not desist they will begin to kill them

A perilous adventure took place at Olympia on the 4th. A sailing party was upset by a gust of wind, but by a miracle no lives were lost. There were in the boat, Col Pardee, wife and three children Dr Steel and wife, Mr Millard and wife, Miss Blackler, Mr Gilbert, J P Clark and J B Allen That they escaped is truly wonderful

PERSONAL NOTES

Myer Rosenblatt, for many years a merchant in Eugene City has removed to Portland

On the 21st June C. M Lockwood, of the Dalles, was at the Metropolitan Hotel in Washington City

Hon John A Bingham delivered a political speech at Salem on Saturday evening A friend writes us that the speech was eloquent and admirable.

A Salem man says that Bill Watkinds is the real Executive of the State, and gives his orders to Gov Grover, who is afraid of the bully and meekly obeys him. Also that Bill Watkinds would dismiss Gov. Grover from office sooner than Grover would dismiss him

POLITICAL NOTES

The New York Day Book, a Democratic organ of the old school, fulminates in terrible language against the "new departure" It says that when a party has 'departed" from its principles, it has left everything that is vital to its existence

The San Francisco Examiner noticing the enthusiasm with which the nomination of Newton Booth has been received in San Francisco, as well as all over the State and foreseeing, as we do, that he will be unquestionably elected Governor has lost its temper, raves and uses the language of a fishwoman.

The Mobile Register says that were it once conceded that the World spoke authoritatively the sentiment of the Democracy of the North and the West, when it spoke of Jeff Davis as "a politician who stupidly criminally to use the milder phrase, blundered, there would be no Democratic party between the Potomac and the Rio Grande

In the Columbus (Ga) Sun of the 21st ult A H Stephens controverts the New York World and the New Departure Says Mr Stephens "If any Democrat has changed his opinion and come to the conclusion that the Radical policy is right, then it is not dishonorable for him to say so, but when he does it, the only honorable course for him to pursue afterwards is to go and join that party

The Industrial Reformer and the Working men's Journal, organs of the labor organizations of San Francisco, both oppose Gov Haight and give their reasons why he should not be re elected. It is believed that the organizations they represent will vote en masse for Booth

For several years the Tammany Ring have had a job on hand at Albany (N Y) which at last is becoming a public scandal This job is the erection of a State Capitol, on which $2,800,000 has been expended, and the walls are not yet above ground It affords rare pickings for the thieves of Tammany

The Albany Democrat joins the Oregon City Enterprise in saying that the Herald's interpretation of the "New Departure' is not the correct one, and proves the Herald in error by quoting from Vallandigham's exposition of the new platform

Workingmen's View of the Tariff

The Industrial Reformer, a paper published at San Francisco, and an organ of the labor organizations there examines the resolution of the Democratic platform in relation to the tariff and pointedly condemns it In that resolution the protective tariff system is denounced as 'unjust, oppressive and prolific of corruption, and injurious to the best interests of the country "This decoction,' says the Reformer 'we utterly repudiate That paper then proceeds to comment as follows

A tariff of protection is emphatically protection of American labor Open American ports to the free entry of foreign goods, made in Europe India or China by cheap labor and you do a far greater practical injury to the working man, than results from the importation of cheap Chinese labor, for the former brings them in competition with the millions of cheap laborers living in foreign countries

Only a few days since, the telegraph informed us that the rallying cry of the French Imperialists in the impending struggle for supremacy is "Free Trade in the hope of securing the active support of the English Government Are the Irish Democrats of California prepared to endorse the rallying cry of English aristocrats and French despots and sustain a movement for Free Trade, a policy which in connection with a monopoly of the soil, has almost desolated the Emerald Isle?

Will the mechanics and skilled laborers support a policy that will shut up the work shops and factories of San Francisco and the interior towns? Can the wine growers of our State endorse a doctrine that will render their vineyards worthless? Will the farmers sustain a policy that will destroy their markets? It is astonishing that the Democratic Party pretending as it does, to be the exponent of the laboring masses should proclaim a doctrine which if carried into effect would snatch the bread from the mouth of the laborer

From the address of A S Hallidie President of the Mechanics' Institute we find that there are 1,533 manufactories in San Francisco, employing about $25 000 000 capital and paying nearly $8,000,000 per year for wages. Does the Democratic party propose to advocate a doctrine, the practical effect of which would be to shut up nearly all these fosterers of industry?

In the language of President Hallidie—'One man who starts a cobbler's stall, and through the exercise of his industry gives employment to the father of one family more is a benefactor, and relatively in a greater degree, is the man of capital who encourages industry by his means Shall we then encourage a policy that will destroy both these public benefactors?

To break down a protective tariff is to invade the homes of skilled labor with poverty hunger and distress, and conscious of this, the working men will set their faces like flint against the men or party who dare to advocate such invasion Laboring men are not unmindful of their own welfare, and the political clap-trap of demagogues will not avail against their honest "hard sense.'

Advice to Young Men

Not recently have we met with a more sensible article than one published in the West Side of Friday last, under the above caption The editor begins by showing that the prices which labor has commanded on this coast must inevitably decrease, and urges young men to bestir themselves now, and lay a foundation for future independence The time in which it will be easy to do this, he shows is rapidly slipping away, and a new order of things will soon be established among us Hence the importance of embracing present opportunities so as to escape from dependence and want in future years The last two paragraphs of the article in the West Side are so admirable that we quote them entire

Some demagogues will say that a law should be enacted prohibiting the Chinese from coming among us, but in answer to this we will say that aside from the glaring injustice of such a course it will never be adopted. The Chinese are among us and they will continue here and even if they were disposed of, the immigration from the Eastern States would very much depreciate the present high wages In view of these facts, we wish to impress upon the minds of our young men the importance of having some other dependance than daily labor for support. The people of Oregon have been too long in the atmosphere of mining excitement, to be anything else than improvident and careless of the future Hundreds among us who have lived here since '49, have wasted their time and toil in pursuing ever recurring mining rumors and have not toiled to lay by a single dollar for their declining years, and we fear that many of our young men, following in the footsteps of their parents, will let slip the present golden opportunity to secure good homes and will only realize what they have lost when they find land entirely beyond their means, and themselves compelled to do the hardest labor for the lowest prices in order to earn a subsistence

To all such we say, go to work Work diligently, live economically, and put every dollar you can into land until you have a home you can call your own Don't wait for Legislatures to protect labor, for they won't do it and every day that you waste in idleness sees land getting dearer, and your opportunities for purchasing becoming less Young men, think upon this Upon your opportunity now and the consequences of any delay, and having considered the question thoroughly leave off whittling and smoking around corner groceries and loafing about country towns, and, with a determination to be and have something, grasp the implements of industry and go to work

Ashamed of It

Some of the Republican papers in California are ashamed of the twaddle about the Chinese in the seventh resolution of their platform For instance, the Oakland News says

So far as demolishing Chinamen is concerned, the platform of the Republicans is quite as 'sound as that of the Democrats Both parties ought to be ashamed of these planks in their respective creeds No one expected anything better from the Democratic party, however since hostility and brutality toward inferior races has long been one of its cardinal objects It was on account of its inhumanity toward the negro race that the moral sentiment of the country combined to overthrow it and it was this same moral sentiment which gave strength and vigor to the Republican party, and enabled it to wrest power from the Democratic organization When the Republican party, therefore goes back on its own record and vies with its political antagonist in ungenerous and illiberal treatment of inferior people, it will be certain to lose the respect and confidence of the very class of people who first gave it vitality, and without the support of which it would soon find itself defeated in every State in the Union

GOVERNMENT FINANCIAL HISTORY —From the Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune of June 20 we copy this

The financial history of the Government from 1771 to 1871, now preparing under Government control, will soon be completed The original letters and accounts of Government officials, who figured in the early history of the Government are coming in daily from the public libraries and literary associations throughout the country This work will be prepared from entirely original matter The work contains among others, the original letter at the time France transmitted to our Government 8 000,000 francs to enable us to carry on the war with Great Britain It was thought at one time, that several old records needed in the preparation of this work, had been destroyed at the time of the fire at the Treasury Department many years ago, but the most valuable of them have been recently recovered Since it became known that the Government was at work on this great history numerous claims against the United States, growing out of the revolutionary war, have been received

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1871.

CITY.

GREAT PEDESTRIAN FEAT.—The astonishing feat of walking one hundred and six consecutive hours without rest or sleep, was accomplished by ... Sheppard, at the Tammany club room (Joe ...'s place) at 10 o'clock last evening. He started walking at 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, and during the time since then, till 10 last evening, he walked constantly, only having for eight hours fifteen minutes in which to bathe and eat his meals. Most of the time he ate his food while walking, thus saving up time for ... of emergency. He walked (slowly) on a narrow platform, having on each side a railing along which he slid his hands, thus in a measure supporting himself. After the first ... hours he seemed to fall into a stupor ... moments and then revive again and be lively. The stupor was not, however, sleep. ... hours he fell once in consequence of not being ... roused. About this time the attendants began to stimulate him with a fife and drum. This did very well till Saturday night when the whip had to be used occasionally to prevent him from yielding to drowsiness. During the day, however, he kept up well, occasionally talking cheerfully with his attendants or recognizing with a pleasant word acquaintances who came in to see him. During the early part of last evening he was very drowsy and apparently weak, fell four or five times, but rose again each time with but little assistance and commenced his walk with a brisker movement. As the evening wore on there was quite a rush of spectators. ... to lend him excitement if not ... and he walked the last two hours in quite an animated manner, chatting smartly with his acquaintances and frequently going without the aid of his railing, and once trying a playful slide on his platform. He proposed, during the last hour, to walk ... over time if his attendants would get a fife. When time was called, at 10 P. M., the crowd gave him three rousing cheers and a tiger, and he addressed the audience (still walking), saying he had done his 106 hours walking "on the square," to which he would take his oath; that there were several others who would testify to that fact; that he had six times before walked ... without sleep or rest, and that he stood ready to undertake the feat again within four ... for a wager of from $1,000 to $5,000, and ... doubted that he could do it, they ... him any day and the money to go up. He was again cheered, and Mr. Sheppard said he would walk another hour; but in about five minutes his friends interposed and persuaded him to desist. He immediately stooped under the rail of the platform without assistance, put on his hat and coat, and stood for some time receiving congratulations. He then assisted in bathing his limbs and in undressing himself for bed. He laid down in about twenty minutes upon a bed upon the platform on which he walked and was soon insensible in sleep. The feat did not create much excitement till within a few hours of the close, and the money received at the door will but poorly compensate him for the terrible wear and tear of four days and a half without rest or sleep.

... FISHERIES.—A business letter from ... Dimon, New York, dated June ... with this inquiry: "I note but ... about the fisheries on the [Columbia]. This season—are they packing and canning as usual?" We have no definite information as to the extent of fishing operations of this season, as compared with former years, but we believe that the aggregate catch is larger than ever before. The Columbia salmon in barrels, half barrels, kits and cans have become an established article of merchandise in almost all the markets where other fish are sold, and it is common now to see them as well quoted as codfish or mackerel, in the market reviews of San Francisco, Sandwich Islands, Australia, Hong Kong, South America, and in many of the cities of the Eastern States seaboard and of Europe. A very extensive catch is necessary to supply all these, and we may safely say that the fisheries of Oregon and Washington are among the most permanent and productive of the Pacific coast.

... —The Sunday Herald says: "Inquiries have been made of late by ... concerning the whereabouts of Mr. Cook, a well known butcher of this city, who has not been in town for the past month. About ... he went to Washington county to buy some cattle, having about $1,000 in coin on his person. He returned to the city in a day or two afterwards, then started back, and he has not been seen since. Some suppose he has been ... while others assert that he left the ... as he told them he was going to do so. His wife and three children in this city, and not expecting to see him again, left for San ..., where Mrs. Cook has some friends."

... MAN RESCUED.—The Sunday Bulletin says: "Yesterday morning, between five and six o'clock, a hat was seen floating near the ... Co.'s wharf, and a look a little farther ... a man in the water apparently dead. ... who discovered this—Mr. Molthrop, Geo. ... and others—hastily went to work and ... man out, but he was insensible. They tried the plan of rolling the body on a barrel and other devices for restoring bodies, and finally restored the man to consciousness, when he was taken to a room at the Western Hotel. He will recover. He had fallen into the river while in- ..."

LOOK OUT FOR THE CANARIES.—We are informed that on Saturday, a sparrow-hawk flew into the piazza of Mr. C. P. Ferry's residence and seized two Canary birds confined there in a cage. When discovered, one of them was nearly devoured; the other had been merely pierced through with the claws of the ravenous hawk. We learn also that on the same day, or within the last two or three days, several other Canary birds were killed in the same manner, the hawks flying into a window in one or two cases to get at them.

CONGRESSMAN BINGHAM AT SALEM.—We received a note last evening, from Salem, enclosing a poster announcing that Hon. John A. Bingham will speak at the Opera House Saturday evening. On the back of the poster is written in pencil (yesterday), "Immense success; Opera House crowded. Don't fail to have him speak in Portland." In pursuance of the suggestion, we may say that our people would doubtless turn out a very large audience to hear Mr. Bingham. Everybody knows him by reputation, and everybody would like to see and hear him.

FREE LECTURE.—Prof. T. F. Campbell, of ... College, Corvallis, will deliver a free lecture (one of a series) at the Unitarian church this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. Subject—"Demonology, casting out Devils, Spirit Rappings." To-morrow evening he will deliver one on "Death, Moses, Geology." Professor Campbell is reputed to be a finished scholar and a fine speaker. His lectures have been considered among the best ever delivered in the State.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We learn that an old resident of this county, living two miles above St. Helens, on Scappoose Bay, named Loffer, died suddenly on Friday, July 7th. He had just finished his dinner, and walked out, when he fell dead. He was 77 years of age.

ROWING CLUB MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Neptune Rowing Club will be held this evening, corner of Front and Morrison streets. The Club expect their new boat per steamer California this evening, and also to make arrangements for an excursion and regatta.

BUSY.—On Friday the railroad ferry carried more freight to the railroad depot than on any day previous. Freights are offering for the South in such quantities that the Railroad Company ... to keep the depot clear. Considerable ... is being sent up the road.

HEAVY DUTY.—Among the articles invoiced in the cargo of the ship Goodell, from Hong Kong, now discharging at Flander's wharf, is one lot of opium, the duty on which will amount to ...

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Considerable quantities of wool are being received from Walla Walla.

Officer Jacobi was sick and off duty during last week, but he resumes to-day.

The Bulletin announces that Mr. Hicks has sold his interest in the Era to Mr. Ravely, his partner.

A team and wagon, with a family, arrived from Upper Columbia on Saturday by the Oneonta, having crossed the plains this year.

Our Skins are Sieves,

And through millions of orifices oozes the transparent fluid which nature does not need for vital purposes. This is a wise provision of Providence, but excessive perspiration is, nevertheless, extremely weakening. During the heats of summer all hard-working men perspire to an extent that is more or less debilitating. They, of all classes of the community, require a wholesome invigorant at this season. Let them not seek it in the liquors of the bar-room; they will not find it there. A medicated stimulant, pure and undefiled, is what they need; and among this class of remedies, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands alone. No valid plea can be urged against its use even by the genius of Temperance itself; for even the Maine law permits the sale of diffusive stimuli for medicinal purposes. As a general renovating preparation, the Bitters has no equal anywhere. But this is only one of the merits of this famous invigorator. Its regulating properties give it an immense superiority over all the tonics of the Pharmacopœia. In cases of chronic constipation it is the most useful and certain of all aperients. It creates no violent commotion in the discharging organs, but gently relieving them of their obstructions, leaves them in a healthy, vigorous condition. It seems unnecessary to state, in view of the mass of testimony as to its effects in dyspepsia, that it is a permanent cure for that terrible but too general complaint.

The numerous "Bitters," under various names, which mercenary dealers endeavor to substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be avoided; for their own sakes, by the sick and the public at large. Hostetter's Bitters are procurable in bottles only, and never sold in bulk.

MILLS SEMINARY.

REV. C. T. MILLS AND WIFE, FOR the past six years Principals of the Young Ladies Seminary at Benicia, are happy to announce to their patrons and friends, that the next term of their well known Institution, will open

Wednesday, August 2, 1871,

In their New, Commodious and Beautiful Building, just completed at SEMINARY PARK, BROOKLYN.

As most of the able and experienced corps of Teachers with valuable accessions, as well as the fine classes of pupils now pursuing their studies remove with them, the School remains essentially unchanged with greatly increased facilities for physical comfort and intellectual culture without additional expense. Mr. and Mrs. Mills believe they can accomplish much more for their pupils in the future than they have been able to do in the past, and that this Institution offers unrivalled advantages for a thorough and finished education.

GENERALITIES.

It is a singular circumstance that the word unabridged is not in the latest illustrated edition of "Webster's Unabridged Dictionary."

Among the immigrants recently arrived in this county is a Collie dog, from Scotland, said to be able to control 500 sheep. He is to be taken to Colorado.

A current maxim in Arabian literature says that "Paradise is as much for him who has rightly used the pen, as for him who has fallen by the sword."

A country paper, speaking of the street-organ playing of a soldier without arms, who worked the crank with his foot, happily says: "His playing was far above the usual average. he threw his whole sole into it."

"Johnny," said one of the boys to a bereaved friend, who had just lost his father, "you behaved well at the funeral." "Oh, pshaw!" replied Johnny, with the air of one whose merits were only half recognized, "you should have seen me at the grave."

The converted cannibals of the Fejee Islands are at it again. The rival clans, according to late advices, are devouring each other with the utmost gusto; the Levonia, who recently professed Christianity, displaying conspicuous industry in their peculiar gastronomic exercises. The missionaries evidently will have to do their work over again.

In a late speech on woman's rights, the fair orator, led away by enthusiasm, exclaimed: "It is well known that Solomon owed his wisdom to the number of his wives!" Another lecturer, going further still, moved that women should be intrusted with commissions in the navy, to which a deep, gruff nautical voice amongst the audience responded with the observation that "Lot's wife was an old salt you know."

In dressing for photographs, dark brown, dark green, maroon and plain black goods without gloss, will make a rich drab color. Silk of the same color will take considerably lighter. Snuff brown, dark leather, dark [illegible] cherry, dark orange, crimson and [illegible] will also take a rich drab color. Violet, blue, purple, pink and magenta will take very light, and should be avoided. The hair should not be very wet or glossy.

It is recorded of the famous fox hunter, Mytton, that having leaped over a fence into a gravel pit some thirty feet deep, he lay there with his broken leg perfectly quiet, in the hope that he might have company. Presently a farmer came down, horse and man, with great damage, and almost on the top of him. "Why did you not warn me?" cries the unfortunate. "Why did you [illegible] when there was [illegible] you tool, [illegible] hold your noise [illegible] and them."

Two monks, a [illegible] man and the other a Franciscan, traveling together were stopped by a river. The Dominican told the Franciscan that as he went barefoot he was forced by the rules of his order to carry him across and that if he refused he would commit a great sin. The Franciscan yielded to this observation and took the other on his shoulders. When they were in the middle of the ford the Franciscan asked the Dominican if he had any money about him. "Yes," replied the latter, "I have two reals." "I ask you a thousand pardons, brother," rejoined the disciple of St. Francis, "but my order forbids me carrying money." And with these words he straightway plunged his man into the river.

A physician in the Grand Army Journal tells this ghastly joke: "I remember one day in making my hospital rounds, a patient, just arrived, presented me an amputated forearm, and doing so could scarcely refrain from a broad laugh; the latter was constantly on his face. 'What is the matter? This does not strike me as a subject of laughter.' 'It is not, doctor, but excuse me. I lost my arm in so funny a way that I still laugh when I look at it. Our first sergeant wanted shaving badly, and got me to attend to it, as I am corporal. We went together in front of his tent; I had lathered him, took him by the nose and was applying the razor when a cannon ball came, and that was the last I saw of either his head or my arm. Excuse me, doctor, for laughing at this, but I'll be especially blessed if I ever saw such a funny thing.'"

Judge Chase's Letter.

From the Washington Republican.

Several years ago, when Abraham Lincoln was President, and a vacancy occurred on the supreme bench—the vacancy being the Chief Justiceship—a certain gentleman took a letter around to his Senatorial friends and asked them to sign it. The letter was addressed to Mr. Lincoln and was a request that the writer be appointed to the head of the judical department of the government. He showed the letter to one brave and frank old man, and asked him to put his name to it. "Brother Chase," said he, "I cannot do it. I do not think you are fit for the place. You have been a politician too long to be a good lawyer."

Mr. Chase, however, was made Chief Justice, and he has been writing letters ever since at and about the Presidency. The letter to the late Mr. Vallandigham, the latest one that has been published, is perhaps the most significant. It will be remembered that in 1868 John J. Cisco, of New York, Mr. Chase's Assistant Treasurer, was the recipient of a similar document from him, which was read in the New York Democratic Convention. It was a bid for the Democratic nomination, but in that one he had the manliness to state on what terms he would accept; it was an attempt to force on the party a patriotic and a half loyal platform. The letter to Mr. Vallandigham is a complete surrender, and, as the Dayton Journal says, it proves that the writer has now no idea of being regarded as a Republican, but assumes his membership of the Democratic party as a matter of course." "Farewell," the same paper says, "to the [illegible] champion of our organization in its early days! Farewell to the hand that [illegible] the closing invocation to the draft of Abraham Lincoln's proclamation of emancipation. The departure will make no difference to the Republicans of the Union whether it will be of any benefit to Mr. Chase remains to be seen."

It is really sad to see so great a man as Mr. Chase undoubtedly is dragging the robe of the Chief Justice in this miry pool of the new departure, the obvious object of which is on false pretenses to steal the power that cannot be honestly and honorably acquired. We had hoped for a better and greater and purer example from him, but we have been disappointed. He has fully justified the opinion which the Senator to whom we have alluded, and whose words we have quoted, formed years ago, and has shown that he is not only unfit for the position he holds but for that to which he aspires.

HUSBAND HUNTING EXTRAORDINARY.—A New York correspondent writes: "It has been the fashion this spring for parties of [illegible] gentlemen to go to California. One party was organized by a lady of great wealth and fashion, who has a lovely daughter just [illegible], and Mrs. Grundy (you well know what value to place upon her sayings) says that this mother, who is far seeing and manœuvring, has ambitious views for her daughter, who will also have plenty of money; that she aims at nothing else but having her the sister-in-law of the Princess Louise! The Marquis of Lorne has a young brother in this country, Lord Walter Campbell, whom his father, the Duke of Argyle, sent here, placing him in a banking house. He was the invited guest of this lady on her trip to San Francisco, and all his expenses were paid. Only think of such a privilege! Allowed to pay the expenses of the Duke's son for the pleasure of his company, and in the hope that her daughter may yet be the Duke of Argyle's daughter-in-law. And why not? He wants money for his younger sons, and there is plenty here. Besides the young lady is very pretty; and what matters [illegible]?"

LOSS OF LIFE BY EARTHQUAKES.—Not long ago 40,000 people, it was estimated, were buried by the earthquake which destroyed Mendoza; [illegible] perished at Quito in 1797; 60,000 at Lisbon in 1755; 74,000 at Messina in 1692; [illegible] by two earthquakes at Antioch in the sixth and seventh centuries, and 50,000 in the same country upon another occasion; a catastrophe in Mexico carried off 10,000 persons; and one in Calabria, 40,000.—Cassell's Magazine.

TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT

And for this reason: It is an exact counterpart of one of the most valuable natural medicines in the world. We refer to the great Seltzer Spring of Germany, to which thousands of the dyspeptic, the bilious, the rheumatic, and the victims of venal diseases resort annually, and return to their homes convalescent or cured. The Aperient is one of the first, and by far the most successful of all the efforts made to reproduce, in a portable form, the popular mineral waters of Europe. See that you purchase only the genuine article.
